Risk Warnings

For complete information on risks, refer to the legal documents. The value of investments and any income will fluctuate (this may partly be the result of exchange-rate fluctuations) and investors may not get back the full amount invested. Debt instruments are exposed to credit risk which is the ability of the borrower to repay the interest and capital on the redemption date. Changes in interest rates will result in fluctuations in the value of the fund. The fund uses derivatives (complex instruments) for investment purposes, which may result in the Fund being significantly leveraged and may result in large fluctuations in the value of the fund. Investments in debt instruments which are of lower credit quality may result in large fluctuations in the value of the Fund. The fund may invest in distressed securities which carry a significant risk of capital loss. The fund may invest extensively in contingent convertible bonds which may result in significant risk of capital loss based on certain trigger events. The fund may invest in a dynamic way across assets/asset classes, which may result in periodic changes in the risk profile, underperformance and/or higher transaction costs.

Fund Objective and Policy: The Fund aims to provide a combination of income and capital growth over the medium-to-long term. The Fund seeks to achieve its objective by investing primarily in a flexible allocation to debt securities and global equities. For the full objectives and investment policy please consult the current prospectus. The investment concerns the acquisition of units in a actively managed fund and not in a given underlying asset.

Investment process & policy*

- Seeks attractive income from fixed income & equity markets
- Fixed income portfolio: Focus on high yield and corporate bonds, but no credit, sector, duration or yield curve constraints
- Equity portfolio: What management regards as the strongest ideas from the team's Global Equity Income strategy
- The majority of non-euro securities is typically hedged back to Euros, but active currency positions are permitted
- Derivatives can be used for hedging & investment purposes
- Equity exposure managed in 35-65% range, determined by Ivanova, supported by the Fixed Interest team's Global Asset Allocation Group
- The prospectus allows for flexibility, but historically the fund has not exceeded these allocations, allowing it to be included in the Morningstar EUR Moderate Allocation – Global Sector
